LYNCHBURG FANS BASEBALL MAD

LYNCHBURG. VA. August 30.—
Lynchburg is baseball frantic to-night over the great victory of the local team to-day of Danville, when they bested the Bugs in a seventeen-inning contest. The game is the one topic of discussion everywhere in the city. During the progress of the contest hundreds waiched it by, innings at Ninth and Main Streets, and when the final result came oid men forgot their dignity and leaped in the air to give yent to their overwrought feelings. The long contest recalls the one with Portsmouth on August 8th last year, when a home run by Bentley broke up a fifteen-inning game, which was the record extra inning game, which was the record extra inning game for the Virginia League until it was smaghed leeday.
